Jury Exonerates Harold Braun

The jury empanelled to inquire into the death of E. F. Braun met again on Friday afternoon last in the office formerly occupied by the late C. L. Peterson. Coroner Dr. J. L. Clarke, Mr. C. Decker, of the Attorney-General's Department, Court Reporter Kinsey and Const. J. Jarman of the A. P. P., and the jury composed of Mr. J. M. Reed, foreman, A. Brusso, A. McNaughton, A. G. Studer, C. Adstead and J. E. Huget all being present.

The witnesses were Mrs. E. F. Braun who was the victim of the murderous assault by her husband, Mr. and Mrs. H. Gabel, uncle and aunt of the lad Harold, Mr. Dan Dippel, Dr. W. G. Evans and Const. Jarman.

All the evidence tended to show that Braun through his ungovernable temper and frenzied action was responsible for the tragedy which resulted and ended in his sudden death.

Mrs. Braun presented a pitiable sight when giving her evidence and had to be assisted several times during the period in which she was out on the stand. Her face and head was badly bruised and her right arm when it was uncovered showed the severe usage she had received in the assault. Her evidence went to show the reason for Braun's action which was her inability to assist him any further in supplying him with money and the fact that she refused to sign an agreement of sale of their farm because she thought it unwise to dispose of same. On Sunday morning Braun started to load his wagon with some building material which they had bought for the purpose of building a new house and also some of the furniture in the shack to take away. Mrs. Braun tried to calm him down and reason with him again but this only seemed to intensify his temper and he then began assaulting her. After hitting her in the back of the head knocking her down, hurting her arm and pounding her head while she was on the ground she practically became insensible and did not know what happened further until she found the boys assisting her to a neighbor's residence.

The evidence of 13-year old Harold Braun in relation to his actions at the time of the trouble was also taken. The witness, who is a blue-eyed clear faced lad and one of the smartest pupils in his school, being in Grade VIII, told his story in a very straightforward manner although the poor lad broke down rather badly when about half way through. The main part of his evidence was the relating to his actions when he saw his father follow his mother and hit her in the back of the head, knocking her down. He thought his father would kill his mother when she was on the ground and did not know what to do but finally after calling on his father not to hit her again he picked up the axe and hit his father in the back of the head to make him leave his mother alone although he knew "he might have to go to jail for it." When asked by Mr. Decker if he was fond of his mother he replied "Yes sir, I am." He was then asked was he fond of his father and he replied emphatically "Yes sir, I sure was." He had no thought of killing his father but thought that he would kill her and himself and brother. He also stated that his

"We are satisfied with the verdict of the coroner's jury in the case of Harold Braun of Didsbury, and do not intend to press the case further," was the statement made to the Calgary Albertan by Attorney-General Brownlee on Wednesday.

A Farewell Party

The Opera House was filled to the doors on Friday evening last, the occasion being a huge farewell party given to Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Freeman and family by all the organizations in town before their departure to make their home in Innisfail.

The first part of the evening was given over to a whist drive.

After the whist drive had been finished community singing was indulged in and was greatly enjoyed by everyone present. Mayor Chambers, who occupied the chair then presented Mrs. Freeman with a beautiful electric floor lamp on behalf of the citizens while Mr. J. A. McGhee presented Mr. Freeman with a fine pair of handles for his curling stones on behalf of the curlers. Both Mr. and Mrs. Freeman were taken greatly by surprise and had some difficulty in thanking the donors and replying to the speeches.

The whole company then spent a social time for awhile at the fine lunch provided after which dancing was commenced, the music being provided by Dr. Herb. Liesmer and the Bellamy orchestra.

The party broke up at a late hour every person saying farewell and wishing Mr. and Mrs. Freeman hearty good wishes for their future welfare in their new home.

Didsbury has suffered a great loss in the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Freeman for the northern town as they have both taken a great interest in the business, sporting and social circles since coming here in 1916. Mr. Freeman has been Solicitor for the town for some years and has always given every possible assistance in all athletic doings; he was President of the Didsbury Curling Club for the last two seasons and has been a keen baseball and hockey enthusiast for the town. He was also Senior Warden in King Hiram Lodge A. F. & A. M. Mrs. Freeman has been connected with several of the women's organizations and by her humorous and sympathetic disposition is leaving a place in the hearts of her many friends that will be hard to fill.

Commencing this Saturday night the picture show will be run continuously from 7.30 to 11. The comedy and second run will start about 9. This is very good accommodation for a small town and will probably prove convenient to many.

Canada's Day of Opportunity

The commencement of Spring operations throughout Canada has ushered in a feeling of optimism in practically all lines of activity and in all sections of the country with the exception of the coal mining areas of Nova Scotia where the disastrous miners' strike is still in progress at the time of writing and with little hope of an early settlement.

There are substantial grounds for such optimism and the stronger confidence in Canada's immediate future which is now increasingly evident. During March there was a substantial improvement in manufacturing and particularly so in the textile industry. Permits for new building likewise show a gratifying increase, and these betterments, taken in conjunction with the demand for farm help, are operating to provide a larger volume of employment.

Conditions throughout the Western Provinces appear to be uniformly good and altogether encouraging. Farm operations have begun under favoring conditions of plenty of moisture in the soil and well in advance of last year, and, notwithstanding a considerable drop from the peak prices prevailing a month or two ago, grain prices are still good, with prospects for prices prevailing at a figure which will result in a fair profit on agricultural operations.

During February and March there was, according to the April Monthly Commercial Letter of the Bank of Commerce, a steady increase in the number of farms sold in practically all parts of Canada, and particularly so in the prairie provinces. Immigration is steadily increasing and a gratifying number of settlers of an exceptionally good type are arriving from the British Isles.

For the second time in the past six years the month of February showed a favorable balance of trade, the excess of exports over imports being the greatest since 1919, and the total value of trade larger than in the corresponding month of 1921, when prices were substantially higher than at present.

But promising as the immediate future appears to be, the outlook is even brighter for Canada in the years to come because of the increasing necessity on the part of the United States to import food supplies. Reference was made in this column some weeks ago to the prediction of President Coolidge that in a comparatively few years the United States would be one of the greatest food importing countries in the world. Confirmation of this statement has already come from Secretary Hoover who states that the United States is importing butter and cheese on an increasing scale. Once the greatest of exporters of cattle and meats, the United States is now regarded in Great Britain as having ceased to be a source of supply of meat.

The population of the United States is increasing at the rate of one and a half million people annually, and this large increase is principally in the large cities and industrial centres. The production of wheat, of cattle, of dairy products, is not increasing in like proportion. Ten years hence there will be 15,000,000 more people in the United States to be fed, and their food supplies will have to be imported. Here is to be found Canada's golden opportunity.

Canada is the logical source of supply for the United States and apparently our people are getting ready to capture this business. For example, Canada exported ten million more pounds of butter during the past twelve months than during the previous year. The salmon pack in British Columbia last year was the largest ever made in the Province, and 390,000 cases larger than in any year for five years. Cattle exports are steadily increasing and owing to the higher prices now ruling for beef cattle, coupled with the fact that the world's demand for beef has now overtaken the supply, Canada may be expected to secure its full share of this trade.

There have been times when truly patriotic Canadians have expressed doubts as to the Dominion's future and whose confidence has been shaken as they have contemplated this country's geographical handicaps and noted tens of thousands of its people leaving for the country to the south, drawn by the magnet of opportunity there. But there is nothing in the prospect now opening before Canada to induce despair or shake one's confidence. Exactly the reverse is true.

The twentieth century will yet be found to be Canada's century. The fulfillment of that prophecy received a setback during the first quarter by reason of the war and the after-effects of war, but a study of present conditions and tendencies in Canada, the world economic situation, and more especially the trend of events in the United States, all point to the inevitable conclusion that this Dominion now occupies an exceptionally strong position, and it only remains for the Canadian people to bestir themselves and take full advantage of the opportunities before them to achieve happiness and prosperity for themselves and a place for Canada in the very forefront of nations.

Newspapers handled through the mails in Canada average in bulk 125 tons a day. It was stated in the House of Commons. The average cost per year of transporting newspapers through the mail is $3,500,000, about 37 per cent. of the total cost of handling all mail matter. Revenue derived in 1923 totalled $1,329,310, and in 1924 was $1,352,800.

TONIC TREATMENT FOR INDIGESTION

The Surest Way to Relieve Stomach Trouble is Through Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

When the stomach is feeble and food lies in it undigested, the poisonous gases distend the walls of the stomach and cause serious interference with the other organs, especially with the action of the heart and lungs. These poisonous gases have other ill effects. They are absorbed by the blood and so weaken and corrupt it as to cause aches in remote parts of the body and the formation of unhealthy tissue everywhere. Experience shows that these troubles vanish just as soon as the stomach is made strong enough to digest the food. In other words, it needs a tonic that will enable it to do the work of changing the food into nourishment. The tonic used ought to be one that will agree with the most delicate stomach and this is exactly what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do.

Here is a bit of convincing proof given by Mrs. Chas. Ladner, Ellerslie, P.E.I., who says:—"For some years I was a sufferer from stomach trouble. Everything I ate caused distress, sour stomach and belching. I could not eat meat or potatoes, and I grew weak and very nervous. No medicine seemed to help me until I was persuaded to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and these simply worked wonders. I took the pills faithfully for a couple of months, by which time every symptom of the trouble had disappeared, and there has not since been the slightest symptom of stomach trouble. No wonder I praise Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

You can get these Pills from any medicine dealer, or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Selected Immigration

E. A. Cunningham, Addressing the Montreal Kiwanis Club, Emphasizes the Need and Value of Immigration

"So much confusion exists on the relation of immigration to employment, that I welcome the opportunity to outline what I know to be the true condition in this regard. The fact that Kiwanis stepped out ahead of the whole country and sounded the clarion call of immigration, selected and directed, is well-known.

"Permit me to say a few words upon my qualifications to speak tonight on this issue. I went to Southern Alberta in 1900, before there was a road, plow or farm fence in the country. My first purchase was a horse and saddle, which constituted the means of transport, and, as intimated, we could ride for miles in any direction without bothering about roads or fences. The main highway was the Benton Trail, which ran from Fort Benton, at the head of the Missouri River in Montana, through Southern Alberta to Calgary, the divisional headquarters of the Royal North West Mounted Police, and that trail meandered, though it was the shortest way to a given point, avoiding the coulees and leading to the river crossings at fords and bridges.

"It was about 1906 that the first carload of turkey red Kansas hard fall wheat seed arrived for sowing at Spring Coulee in Southern Alberta—and Alberta began to produce in volume the famous Alberta red hard wheat about the same time, and it was in 1915, or within ten years of the beginning of Clifford Sifton's campaign, that Lethbridge, which had grown to a beautiful city of 14,000, handled 50,000,000 bushels of wheat through its yards. This accomplishment, to my knowledge, within fifteen years of the time when there was not a plow on the land anywhere, was the result of immigration alone.

"Now, how did that benefit industry? Let me illustrate. Let us take lumber—with which I was connected for several years—and I speak of what I know.

"The first purchase a settler makes is lumber for his shack or house. This is ordered from the retail lumber yard, which places the order to replenish stock with the sawmill, which, in turn, hires men to go into the bush to cut trees for logs, which are afterwards cut at the mill. The mill man hires railroad cars and crews to transfer the sawn lumber to the prairie yards in fulfillment of the orders—immediately you have started employment of labor. Now, the mill wants machinery renewals, chain, cut dogs, peavies, pulleys, belting and a lot of other things, all of which are manufactured in eastern factories. The mill wants, in addition to hay and oats for horses, subsistence of all kinds for the crews, canned goods galore. Clothing, underwear, shoes and stockings, overalls, caps, etc., which were not then manufactured west of the Great Lakes. Orders for these had to go to wholesale houses in Calgary, Winnipeg and Vancouver, who replenished from eastern mills. It must be perfectly clear to you that if heavy orders are sent to the eastern mills that they must hire men to fill those orders. The railroad must repair and maintain freight cars and locomotives to take care of this business; and what happens when the lumber arrives at the retail yard? The farmer hauls it out to his farm—he must have wagons and harness, nails and hardware, building paper, glass and 'Sherwin-Williams' and 'Canada' paint, all of which comes from the eastern factory. He also uses groceries and household supplies, and later, houses are extended, and enlargement makes further demands. Who can then say that immigration is not the cure for unemployment?

"There are at present within 15 miles of the railways, 25,000,000 acres of land which on the basis of 320 acres per family, which will give to industry $122,000,000 per year and $13,000,000 to railroads per year.

try $122,000,000 per year and $13,000,000 to railroads per year.

"Now where are we? Are we not pointing a way to the solution of the Canadian railroad problem. We are, gentlemen, and the only way is by the creation of new business in Canada; you can have a share in that creation.

"Canada has no parallel on earth in its manner of development or its opportunity for development. When the U.S. had 9,000,000 people there were but few people west of the Alleghany Mountains and the development came from the Atlantic Coast westward. Canada had to link up British Columbia with Eastern Canada and the problem is entirely different. The Canadian Pacific Railway took over the burden of the Dominion Government and built the connecting link between British Columbia and Eastern Canada and has been engaged in the development of this great Empire ever since—a territory more vast than the U.S. including Alaska. Alberta alone can accommodate in area the British Isles with Belgium, Denmark, Netherlands, Switzerland and Czechoslovakia and there is still room for more, add the populations and you have 80,290,333 compared with Alberta's present population of 588,454."

PREFERABLE TO KEEP SEPARATE RAILWAY LOANS

Ottawa.—Differing sharply from critics of the budget, Herbert Marler, Liberal, St. Lawrence-St. George, Montreal, held, in the house, that the financial statement presented by Hon. J. A. Robb, acting minister of finance, was "clear to analyse and clear in its effect." He did not agree that railway loans should be included in the total of net consolidated debt. Operation of the National Railways had been "an extremely expensive matter" for the people of the Dominion, but, while our railway debt was a debt of the Dominion, Mr. Marler thought it was another matter that it should be included in the consolidated debt.

For one reason, Mr. Marler argued, the question of public ownership was on trial, and if, at any subsequent date, it was terminated, "it would be distinctly preferable to have as large a part as possible of our railway debt kept separate from our other financial dealings." He submitted, however, that the public should be given each year a statement of the combined debt, showing in one part the consolidated debt, with its increases or decreases, and in another part any increase in the railway indebtedness.

Mr. Marler estimated that in the last six years the Dominion had put $585,848,974 of new money into railways. "Member who are so much in favor of public ownership," he added, "or who desire extensions and costly improvements, will pause for a moment and consider how long we can keep up this pace—or how any of them can expect decrease in our taxation if this yearly expenditure is continued." The only way to reduce taxation was to spend less.

Alberta Ranchers To Engage In Dairying

Belleville, Ont.—Hundreds of yearling Holstein heifers are being brought up in Hastings County for shipment to Alberta, where ranchers are going into dairying in earnest. One Alberta company, it is said, has five hundred of these yearlings on a farm near Stirling, ready for shipment, and it is stated that five hundred more will be shipped out of the Madoc section. The buyers are in various parts of the country where the black and white predominate. They are going in for milk producing, according to a Belleville man interested in the beef and dairy business. Some bulls are also being bought.

Future Peace In Europe

Should Be Based On Goodwill Thinks Sir Esme Howard

Princeton, N.J.—Reasons for Great Britain's rejection of the Geneva protocol for compulsory arbitration of international disputes and hopes held out for future peace in Europe by means of the security pacts proposed by Germany, were outlined by Sir Esme Howard, British ambassador to the United States, in an address before the English-Speaking Union.

"It is impossible to say now," he asserted, "how the security pact discussions will end, but we can at least all hope that they may lead to a settlement by agreement and to the establishment of a peace, not dependent upon huge and ruinous armaments, but based on goodwill and common sense."

"If that comes about," Sir Esme continued, "the next disarmament conference will not be long in coming. Of that we may be sure. If, on the other hand, this hope also fades away and dies, why, then, I frankly do not see any other alternative than the maintenance of our national security; and what irony to call it security by force of arms and military alliances, which will make crushing taxation, financial ruin and the inevitable armageddon in the end."

She Now Enjoys Good Health

Quebec Lady Sends Message Of Hope to all Sick Women

Dame E. Ouellet Used Dodd's Kidney Pills For Kidney Trouble, Headaches and Indigestion With Great Success.
St. Joseph de Kamouraska, Que.—(Special).—"I must tell you that a treatment of six boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills have done me a great deal of good," states Dame Ouellet, a well known resident of this place. "I was suffering from kidney trouble, headaches and indigestion. I am now in good health. Kindly publish my testimonial for the benefit of other sick women."

It is noticeable that people who have used Dodd's Kidney Pills are enthusiastic in recommending them to others. That is how Dodd's Kidney Pills have made and maintained their reputation.

Dodd's Kidney Pills are purely and simply a kidney remedy. They strengthen the kidneys so they can do their full work of straining the impurities out of the blood.

Pure blood coursing through the body carries to the different organs the nourishment they need to keep them sound and healthy.

Chemical Warfare

Deathless Wars Are Now Predicted For the Future

Omaha, Neb.—Something approximating "deathless wars" are soon to be the order, in the opinion of Major-General Amos Fries, chief of United States army chemical warfare service. Chemical warfare, the general said, is being developed along the lines of incapacitating great cities and their people, rather than securing sudden loss of life.

Sapiro Files Suit Against Henry Ford

Detroit.—Henry Ford and the Dearborn Pub. Co., of which he is owner, were named defendants in a $1,000,000 libel suit filed in the United States district court by Aaron Sapiro, originator of a plan of co-operating marketing for farmers. Sapiro alleges that articles defamatory to his character have appeared in the Dearborn Independent. The articles, the declaration alleges, charge Sapiro with being one of "a conspiracy of Jewish bankers, who seek to control the food markets of the world."

Dates Arranged For Alberta Coal Probe

Edmonton.—After having secured a great mass of documentary evidence during the past few months, on the condition of the coal industry in the province, the Alberta coal commission, composed of H. M. E. Evans, chairman, and Frank Wheatley, have definitely fixed dates for their sittings in different parts of the province, during the month of May. The dates which have been arranged are:

Edmonton, May 5 to 8; Calgary, May 11 to 13; Drumheller, May 14 to 15; Lethbridge, May 18 to 20; Blairmore, May 21 to 23.

It is possible that at a later date supplementary hearings also may take place at the two larger cities and possibly at other points.

Deny Doukhobors Hurt By Police

Did Not Use Unnecessary Force Says Inspector

Nelson, B.C.—Informed over the long distance telephone that the Doukhobors were demanding a commission of inquiry into the trouble at Grand Forks and were alleging that women and children had been beaten by government officials, Inspector W. R. Dunwoody, at Grand Forks, made the following statement:

"I was in personal charge of the operation of seizure of all Doukhobor property, and at no time was any more force used than was necessary in executing the distress warrants."

"At the mill a large number of women had gathered and endeavored to block the way. Thirty or forty of these had to be lifted out of the way to permit entry. Men rushed in and tried to help the women block our getting in, and they also had to be removed, and were put in behind the fence. We tried not to hurt anybody and I can say that nobody was hurt."

Request Action On Peace Rail Outlet

Vancouver Board of Trade Asks For Immediate Report

Vancouver.—Insistence that the Federal Government should obtain from railway heads of Canada their report and recommendations on suitable outlet for the Peace River country and that action to relieve the northern agricultural belt from its isolation should be taken at the present session of parliament, was contained in a resolution passed by the Vancouver board of trade.

By re-affirming their stand in favor of linking the Peace River Valley with the Pacific coast, the board of trade unites with the associated boards of trade of the Peace River in calling upon the government for action.

Installing Radio Compass

Inaugurates New Era in Navigation of Great Lakes

Alpena, Mich.—Installation at the lighthouse tender, Amaranth, here of a radio compass marks what shipping men generally regard as the inauguration of a new era in vessel navigation of the Great Lakes. Similar radio compass stations are to be installed at the more important lighthouses of the lakes. During times of poor visibility, each station will send out a distinctive radio call for the guidance of vessels.

JUGO-SLAVIA HAS NO DESIGNS ON BULGARIA

Belgrade.—The Jugo-Slav Government has issued a note vehemently protesting against reports regarding Jugo-Slavia which it claims have been disseminating from Bulgarian centres. The note says these reports are to the effect that a terrorist campaign is being carried on in Bulgaria with a view to provoking disorders and civil war, "so as to permit the army of our western neighbor, that is to say, Jugo-Slavia, to pass the frontier and occupy Bulgaria."

The note affirms that Jugo-Slavia always has maintained the best relations with Bulgaria, "notwithstanding raids of brigands from Bulgaria prepared for under the eyes of official Bulgaria."

Three Labor members of the British Parliament who arrived from Sofia, Bulgaria, declared that they were convinced several hundred persons were killed without trial, and on the merest presumption, after the recent bomb explosion in the cathedral at Sofia.

Those who arrived were J. C. Wedgwood, W. MacKinder and P. D. Malone. They were in Sofia at the time of the bomb outrage and during subsequent events.

"From the quantity of information we gathered," they said, "we are convinced that several hundred persons arrested were killed without trial, and on the merest presumption."

"We employed all the influence at our disposal to induce the government to prevent the militarists from massacring men and women apprehended in the course of the recent police operations. Thousands of persons suspected of Communist tendencies or of belonging to the Left Socialists were held in custody."

Egyptian Discloses Plot

Assassination of General Stack Planned Many Political Murders

Cairo, Egypt.—The judicial authorities have published a summary of the confessions of some of the men accused in connection with the assassination last November of the Sirdar of Egypt, General Sir Lee Stack.

Abdel Fattam Anayat, one of the accused, is quoted as declaring in the course of his statement that, following the failure of the conversations between the Egyptian and British premiers in London on the Sudanese and other questions, he met with Dr. Shafik Mansur and Mahmud Ismail at Dr. Shafik's house, when it was decided to commit a series of political murders, with the Sirdar as the first victim.

The declaration says the trio believed the independence of Egypt could only be gained by the political murders. All the persons mentioned in Abdel's confession have been arrested. Mahmud Ismail was an official of the ministry of pious foundations.

Priscilla Dean, Popular Movie Actress, Assumes Role of Locomotive Engineer

No; Priscilla Dean, movie actress, is not to be the engineer of the Trans-Canada Limited, the only limited, all-sleeper train across Canada, even though she donned an engineer's garb, ran a real Trans-Canada locomotive, and acted also as station master for one hour in Yonge Street Station, Toronto. Priscilla is interested in railroading, and is much intrigued with a Canadian Pacific Railway ticket around the world, the first coupon of which called for a journey on this train which, beginning May 17, is scheduled to offer its 90-hour run between Montreal and Vancouver, two cities nearly 3,000 miles apart.

Priscilla's bright eyes opened even wider with astonishment when she was told that this wonderful train was in reality ten fully equipped trains, four of which are moving westward and four eastward at the same time, while two additional trains are being cleaned, refitted and turned around, one at Vancouver and the other at Montreal and Toronto. The equipment of each train is limited to one baggage car, one dining car, four standard sleepers, one 10-compartment car, Vancouver and Montreal, and one 10-compartment car Toronto and Winnipeg, with a drawing room-3-compartment observation sleeper Montreal and Vancouver. Sleeping car passengers only are carried, and last year there was a one-night use of approximately 100,000 berths for the 119 days the train was in service. The east and west bound trains together covered 6,292 miles every day. The season's mileage for the 238 trips was 758,748 miles, or three times the distance from the earth to the moon.

There are 48 engine runs daily. Including these engine stops, the trains make only 28 stops on their cross-continent run. Owing to the necessity of changing train crews on such a long run, about 14 crews, or about 84 men, are required for one trip on each train, while 48 sleeping and dining car employees are at work each trip on a single train, or nearly 400 men for this branch of the Trans-Canada service.

Banff, Lake Louise and the scenic wonders of the Canadian Rockies have proved irresistible to singers and musicians, actors and actresses, and movie stars. Among the celebrated artists who have visited Banff are Dame Clara Butt, Galli-Curci, Elsie Janis, Jascha Heifetz, Jack Holt and our own Doug and Mary who all travel on Canada's finest flyer, the Trans-Canada.

J. A. McCOLL,
Special representative of the Vancouver Harbour Commissioners in Alberta and Saskatchewan

Bringing home to grain growers and shippers the advantages of the Western grain route and the grain-handling facilities at the Port of Vancouver, Mr. McColl is visiting every grain centre in Alberta and Western Saskatchewan this summer, addressing Boards of Trade, U. F. A. locals, Farmers' Institutes, and personally calling upon grain shippers to make them acquainted with what Vancouver has to offer them as a shipping centre.

Having been an Alberta farmer for 18 years, and being born and raised on an Ontario farm, Mr. McColl, who formerly represented Acadia in the Alberta legislature, has a practical knowledge of the grain situation that is proving invaluable on his present mission. The experience gained on the land has been amplified by personal inspection of the Vancouver facilities and the advantages of the Western route.

It was Mr. McColl, at the time member for Acadia, who was responsible for the Federal government taking action to give the Board of Railway Commissioners power to transfer engines and cars from one railway to another in order to handle grain at congested points, his activity on that occasion saving many farmers from losing their entire crop.

The Campbell River Company of White Rock has purchased the entire holdings of the James Logging Company of Vancouver which include 35,000 acres of timber lands, containing over two billion feet of logs, a saw mill with a capacity of more than 50,000 feet of lumber a day, three large tugs and a complete logging outfit. A sum of more than five millions dollars is said to be involved.

TO SEARCH FOR TREASURE IN FAR NORTH

Five men from Hull, England, all unmarried and of ages ranging from 22 to 59, sailed from Liverpool recently by Canadian Pacific S.S. Montclare on the quest of a rich vein of silver, said to be hidden in "No Man's Land" of the Great Northwest. The mine is claimed to be in the vicinity of the Mackenzie River, District of Alaska, and is located in a cliff hundreds of miles from civilization. The last port before striking the trail will be Wrangell, Alaska. The party is led by John Riley, an engineer, aged 59, who had much experience in the Klondike gold region. The rest of the party are Thomas Thompson, sailor, aged 26; Joseph Millard, jeweller, aged 22; Robert Flemming, engineer, aged 35, and Ernest Starks, confectioner, aged 32. When they find the mine, they will stake it and return to England to form a company for its development. As they passed through Saint John, N.B., the party was full of confidence and hope to return to the Old Country by next October.

Jury Exonerates

little brother, Earl aged 9, threw himself on the ground beside his mother and father and patted his father on the side of the head calling on Daddy to leave his mother alone, but this had no effect on his father. After he had hit his father the boys pulled the mother away and took her over to a neighbors.

The whole tragic story of the lad and his very evident sorrow closely affected everyone present.

The little boy Earl was also called and corroborated fully his brother's evidence although the little fellow was so badly shaken by sobbing that part of his evidence was almost inaudible. Mr. Becker and Mr. Kinsey however by their fine tact and sympathy finally got the evidence.

Const. Jarman told how Mrs. Braun had called him up once or twice for him to help her about Braun's actions but as she told him that she did not want Braun put away nor would she lay a charge against him he advised her to see the lawyers as he could do nothing in the matter. The last time Mrs. Braun called him was on Friday. The next time he was called was on Sunday when he was notified by Dr. Evans of what had happened and he went out to take up the case. He stated that Harold told him a very straightforward story and he did not arrest him but brought him in to his uncle for safe keeping. Both Mr. and Mrs. Gabel's evidence went to show that Braun was of a very uncertain temper, and Mrs. Braun stated that Braun had suffered an accident some years ago by being thrown from a horse when his head was hurt.

Mr. Dan Dippel had known deceased for about 20 years and had known his father before him. He stated that Braun had tried to get him to sign a note for $500. Upon Mr. Dippel's refusal Braun lost his temper. He had thought Braun wrong mentally for a long time. Braun had said he thought that women should have nothing to do with business, that he thought the law should allow a man to get a divorce for $2. He stated that God had told him to kiss another woman, and that if he did not get his own way he would have to use violence.

Dr. Evans gave evidence along lines previously reported and described graphically the injuries to the head and also his findings in the post-mortem examination.

Mr. Becker then addressed the jury and quoted English law in regard to justifiable homicide and other facts in regard to such cases as this.

Coroner Dr. Clarke also addressed the jury and explained their duty, after which they retired to consider their verdict.

After a few minutes deliberation they returned the following verdict:

"We, the jury, find that the deceased, Edward Franklin Braun, came to his death by a fracture of the skull caused by a blow from an axe in the hands of his son, Harold Braun."

"We are firmly of the opinion that Harold Braun honestly believed said act necessary to preserve the life of the mother, and that he is not guilty of any offense."

After the jury had reported their verdict a very touching scene took place between the mother and son Harold, and the little boy Earl gravely shook hands with all the jurors and those who had been connected with the case.

[Note—We realize that it is very unusual to make any comment on the conduct of the officials in cases like the above, but the Pioneer cannot help but express appreciation for the fine tact and the sympathetic handling of this sad case by Const. Jarman, Mr. C. Becker of the Attorney General's Department and the other officials.]

Agents specializing in Irish business in Canada and the United States look for a big boom in steamship passenger traffic, according to reports received from steamship companies. The present outlook is said to be for the highest level of emigration to Canada since the war.

Interfered in Montreal he expressed a great admiration for Canada and said he had been on the point of settling either in Montreal or Toronto.

"CAPTAIN BLOOD," a Vitaphone picture with J. Warren Kerrigan in the title role, is an adaptation of this thrilling novel.

SYNOPSIS

Captain Peter Blood, buccaneer, rescues Arabella Bishop, with whom he is in love and Lord Wade, an emissary of King James, from two Spanish ships. Lord Wade offers Blood a commission under James, but the buccaneer had been sent as a slave to the Barbadoes by this same King and he declines. To place Arabella in safety he sails into the teeth of the British fleet commanded by Colonel Bishop, governor of Barbadoes, whom Blood had once made walk the plank. Blood's crew would fight to the end, but Blood orders the ship to heave to that Arabella may be landed safely.

"Again you misapprehend me," cried Lord Julian, between concern and indignation. "That is not intended. Your followers will be included in your commission."

"And d'ye think they'll go with me to hunt their brethren—the Brethren of the Coast? D'ye think I could take a commission of King James's? I tell you I wouldn't be soiling my hands with it—thief and pirate's hands though they be. Thief and pirate is what you heard Miss Bishop call me today—a thing of scorn, an outcast. And who made me that? Who made me thief and pirate? D'ye dream, man, what it is to be a slave? But there! I grow hot for nothing at all. I explain myself, I think, and God knows, it is not my custom. I am grateful to you, Lord Julian, for your kindly intentions. I am so. But ye'll understand, perhaps. Ye look as if ye might."

Lord Julian stood a moment, watching the tall figure as it moved away towards the taffrail. Then letting his arms fall helplessly to his sides in dejection, he departed.

CHAPTER XVIII.

The Service of King James

Miss Arabella Bishop was aroused very early on the following morning by the brazen voice of a bugle and the insistent clanging of a bell in the ship's belfry. In his cabin Lord Julian was already astir and hurriedly dressing. About him in the waist, where all last night had been so peaceful, there was a friendly active bustle of some three-score men. By the rail, immediately above and behind Lord Julian, stood Captain Blood in altercation with a one-eyed giant, whose head was swathed in a red cotton kerchief, whose blue shirt hung open at the waist. As his lordship, moving forward, revealed himself, their voices ceased, and Blood turned to greet him.

"Good morning to you," he said, and added: "I've blundered badly. So I have. I should have known better than to come so close to Jamaica by night. But I was in haste to find you. Come up here. I have something to show you."

Wondering, Lord Julian mounted the companion as he was bidden. Standing beside Captain Blood, he looked astern, following the indication of the Captain's hand, and cried in amazement. There, not more than three miles away, was land—an uneven wall of vivid green that filled the western horizon. And a couple of miles this side of it, bearing after them, came speeding three great white ships.

"I'll see Colonel Bishop in Hell or ever I lies to for him."

Wolverstone looked down sardonically upon Lord Julian. "So that you're like to be in yet another sea-fight afore ye've done w' ships, my lord."

"That's a point we were just arguing," said Blood. "For I hold that we're in no case to fight against such odds."

"The odds be damned!" Wolverstone thrust out his heavy jaw. "We're used to odds. The odds was heavier at Maracaybo; yet we won out, and took three ships. They was heavier yesterday when we engaged Don Miguel."

"Aye—but those were Spaniards." "And what better are these?—Are ye afraid of a lubberly Barbadoes planter? Whatever ails you, Peter? I've never known ye scared afore."

A gun boomed out behind them. "That'll be the signal to lie to," said Blood, in the same listless voice; and he fetched a sigh.

Wolverstone squared himself before his captain.

"I'll see Colonel Bishop in hell or ever I lies to for him."

"Oh, but—by your leave," his lordship intervened, "surely there is nothing to be apprehended from Colonel Bishop. Considering the service you have rendered to his niece and to me—"

I assure you that my word counts for something in England."

"Oh, aye—in England." But this ain't England, damme," Wolverstone laughed.

Came the roar of a second gun, and a round shot splashed the water less than half a cable's length astern.

Blood leaned over the rail to speak to the fair young man immediately below him by the helmsman at the wheelstaff.

"Bid them take in sail, Jeremy," he said quietly. "We lie to." But Wolverstone interposed again.

"Hold there a moment, Jeremy!" he roared. "Wait!" Captain and loyal follower faced, their glances met, sudden defiance braving dull anger, surprise and pain.

"There is no question," said Blood, "of surrender for any man aboard save only myself. If Bishop can report to England that I am taken and hanged, he will magnify himself and at the same time gratify his personal rancour against me. I'll send him a message offering to surrender aboard his ship, taking Miss Bishop and Lord Julian with me, but only on condition that the Arabella is allowed to proceed unharmed. It's a bargain that he'll accept, if I know him at all."

"Ye're surely daff even to think of it, Peter!"

"Not so daff as you when you talk of fighting that." "Before we've run another half-mile we shall be within range."

Wolverstone swore elaborately, then

How Robert M. Koenig Found Remedy for Pimply Skin

For years my skin would break out every once in a while—and ointments did very little to help me.

I read a doctor's article stating that pimply skin usually comes from the stomach—and bowels not getting rid of the poisons.

I tried Carter's Little Liver Pills for a few days—and since that time my skin is smooth and clear. Now I tell my friends the right way of getting rid of a broken out skin—and also of steering clear of upset stomach and sick headache. Carter's are all you claim for them.

suddenly checked. Out of the tail of his single eye he had espied a trim figure in gray silk that was ascending the companion. So engrossed had they been that they had not seen Miss Bishop come from the door of the passage leading to the cabin. And there was something else that those three men on the poop, and Pitt immediately below them, had failed to observe. Some moments ago Ogle, followed by the main body of his gun-deck crew, had emerged from the booby hatch, to fall into muttered, angrily vehement talk with those who, abandoning the gun-tackles upon which they were laboring, had come to crowd about him.

Even now Blood had no eyes for that. He turned to look at Miss Bishop, marvelling a little, after the manner in which yesterday she had avoided him, that she should now venture upon the quarter-deck. Her presence at this moment, and considering the nature of his altercation with Wolverstone, was embarrassing. Captain Blood bared his head and bowed silently in a greeting which she returned composedly and formally.

"What is happening, Lord Julian?" she enquired.

As if to answer her a third gun spoke from the ships.

"They are ships of the Jamaica fleet," his lordship answered her.

Before more could be added, their attention was drawn at last to Ogle, who came bounding up the broad ladder, and to the men lounging aft in his wake. Blood, confronted him.

"What's this?" the Captain demanded sharply. "Your station is on the gun-deck. Why have you left it?"

"Captain," Ogle said, and as he spoke he pointed to the pursuing ships. "Colonel Bishop holds us. We're in no case either to run or fight."

"Ogle," said he, in a voice cold and hard as steel, "Your station is on the gun-deck. You'll return to it at once, and take your crew with you, or else—"

"Threats will not serve, Captain."

Captain Blood's hand closed over the butt of one of the pistols slung before him.

Alberta's Sunflower Crop

Development of Product Due to Increase in Dairy Industry

One of Alberta's newest crops, sunflowers for silage, amounted to 160,650 tons last year, while fodder corn, also comparatively new, amounted to 269,888 tons. The development of these field products is largely due to the expansion of the dairy industry. Alberta's dairy production last year was valued at close to $23,000,000, and is rapidly increasing. Britain is providing an attractive market for butter, and cheese is finding an increasing demand.

DOCTOR ADVISED AN OPERATION

Read Alberta Woman's Experience with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Provost, Alberta.—"Perhaps you will remember sending me one of your books a year ago. I was in a bad condition and would suffer awful pains at times and could not do anything. The doctor said I could not have children unless I went under an operation. I read testimonials of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the papers and a friend recommended me to take it. After taking three bottles I became much better and now I have a bonny baby girl four months old. I do my housework and help a little with the chores. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to my friends and am willing for you to use this testimonial letter."—Mrs. A. A. ADAMS, Box 54, Provost, Alberta.

Lachine, Quebec.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because I suffered with pains in my left side and back and with weakness and other troubles women so often have. It was this way about six months. I saw the Vegetable Compound advertised in the 'Montreal Standard,' and I have taken four bottles of it. I was a very sick woman and I feel so much better I could not be without it. I also use Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I recommend the medicines to my friends and I am willing for you to use my letter as a testimonial."—Mrs. M. W. ROSE, 80 Notre Dame St., Lachine, Quebec.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

MAY 3

THE BENEFITS OF TOTAL ABSTINENCE

Golden Text: Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the king's dainties, nor with the wine which he drank. Daniel 1:8.

Lesson: Daniel 1:1-20.

Devotional Reading: Psalm 65:9-13.

The Text Explained and Illumined
A Heroic Resolve, verse 8. Nebuchadnezzar, King of Babylon, directed one of his officers to take Jewish youths of noble families who were especially fair and bright, and have them enter what has been called "The Princes' College of Babylon." For three years they were to receive education for the civil service. They were to be taught the language and learning of the Chaldeans. They were to be nourished with a portion of the food and wine served to the king himself. Among the youths selected were Daniel and three companions.

Daniel firmly resolved (purpose in his heart) that he would not defile himself with the king's dainties nor with the king's wine.

Keep the heart with all diligence, for out of it are the issues of life. "A noble heart-purpose is the strongest watchman over external conduct. It is the purposeless life that has no defences. A liner with engine power and helm and compass and destination can cut her way through the most tumultuous seas. A liner destitute of helm and compass and errand is at the mercy of every fierce and unfriendly sea. Daniel had the mighty safeguard of 'a purpose true,' and when floods of unfriendly circumstances beset him he held firmly on his course" (Dr. J. H. Jowett).

Prince Charles Philippe d'Orleans May Take Up Land in West

The arrival recently on the Canadian Pacific steamer Marloch of Prince Charles Philippe d'Orleans, nephew of the King of Belgium, has added another name to Canada's growing list of titled farmers. Answer To Last Week's Puzzle

Grinding Flour For Russian

Nine Mills Working Night and Day to Fill Big Order

After one of the most active periods of its history, the Maple Leaf Milling Company is nearing completion of the largest flour-grinding contract ever executed. The Soviet Government ordered two million barrels of Canadian flour from the company last December, and the last of it will soon have left the Atlantic seaboard.

Since the contract was placed the company has kept nine mills in steady operation, night and day; and there has been a continuous stream of flour from them to the Atlantic ports whence it was shipped to Batum. Two thousand men have been employed in the grinding of this flour.

No need to suffer with corns, or to run the risk of paring them. Remove them surely and painlessly with Holloway's Corn Remover.

WILL NOT START CLUB

The meeting of returned men held on Saturday last in town was attended by about twenty members. J. Fairley, secretary of the Calgary branch, and S. G. Petley, official soldier adviser were present and both delivered addresses on the big work the Association is conducting.

The problems of the soldier settler, the pension scheme, and the strengthening of the hands of the Dominion command were all forcibly outlined by the two speakers after which the work of appointing a temporary set of officers and executive were proceeded with.

Postmaster Morgan was elected President and Mr. W. A. Austin Sec. Treas., with the following executive: G. Sexsmith, J. Fleury, C. Mortimer and O. Spivy. It is proposed to call another meeting after seedling is done to elect permanent officers for the year.

After a great deal of discussion it was decided that no attempt should be made to open a club room for some months but to work along lines of assistance to each other in times of trouble and to hold social meetings once in a while; to conserve the funds until they were in a position to take action in securing a club room. The majority was opposed to having a club room in which to dispense beer.
